had further cause for admiration, could the offender have been found. But that gentleman was "scores," and before his whereabouts was discovered, an old gentleman stepped out from the crowd and, not without difficulty and no small dauger to himself, succeeded in disarming the vengeful party.

Thus was Bridgeport spared a scene of blood, and we cheated out of a half-calurer item.

POLICE COURT.-There were four esses before Judge Good yesterday

Thomas McCormick was arraigned upon a charge of assaulting and beating John Hazilitat a boarding house in Centre Wheeling. It appeared that Mr. McCormick had rented the house Mr. McCormick had rented the house in partnership with a lady—the lady to attend to the domestic and cellinary arrangements. At this house quite a number of young men lodge and board. Among them is Mr. Hazlitt. This latter gentleman has made himself particularly meful round the house, and of course is a general favorite. Now the young men of the house, like other young men, are slightly given to "run ning the rig" upon one another, when ever a good opportunity offers for that delightful pastime. Somehow or other Mr. McCormick became very much excited an evening or two since, and rushed through the kitchen of the house which he had rented, inquiring the whereabouts of the gentleman predestined to eternal damnation, meaning thereby the inoffensive Mr. Hazlitt. Why he was selzed with such a sadden in fury did not appear at the trial. Probably a "rig" had been run upon him. Mr. Hazlitt had been up stairs, on the swening is question, and washed and dressed himself. Then taking a feigar, he had descended to the front door, where he was engaged in an animated conversation with a young lady. At this interesting juncture he was discovered by the Infuriated Mr. McCormick, who immediately pounced upon him in the most savage and scientific manner, and worried him to such an extens this he was unable to give any lengthy account of what happened. in partnership with a lady—the lady to city yesterday, in consequence of a re-port prevailing that an injured husband, residing in the adjoining village of Fulton, had shot and killed the destroyer of his domestic happiness, Conflicting stories were busily multipiled and circulated until it became a matter of considerable doubt whether matter of considerable doubt whether anything like a tragedy had transpired at all or not. Towards evening, however, we were able to get at the truth of the affair as near as might be.

The foundation for the reports seemed to be this: Adolph Yacke, a some mason and very worthy man, residing in Fulton, has for some time past suspected his wife of a criminal intimacy with a driver employed by him, named andrew Hutchinson. This man has been in Mr. Yacke's employ for a con-

with a tirver empitoyed by him, named andrew Hutchinson. This man has been in Mr. Yacke's, employ for a considerable length of time and boarded at his boase. To discover the truth in the matter Mr. Yacke hit upon a yery common expedient among outraged husbands. On Thursday last he told his wife that he was going to Bellair and would be absent some days. He did absent himself, it is true, but only entil a late hour Thursday night, when he returned to his house armed with a revolver. This was considerately loaded with only powder and paper, wads, cold lead being dispensed with. Yacke quietly entered the house and, it is supposed, found matters in such a state as to justify an immediate assault upon Hutchinson. At any rate he did make or assault, firing blank charges at the teamster without much effect. This individual, however, thought his last hour was come and was only anxious to escape from the house, which he succeed at design dispensed. was come and was only anxious to escape from the house, which he suc-ceeded in doing. He fied as though the foul fiend were after him, and for anght we know may be still on the retreat. What the upshot of the affair may be we are not able to say.

Some weeks ago James W. Paxton Esqr., intending to remove from the city, resigned his position as President of the National Bank of West Virginis, and on Thursday last the Directors of that institution elected Mr. C. well patronized last evening. This afternoon a grand Matinee will be given for the benefit of ladies and children. The exhibition will also be open during the evening.

The Whather—Yesterday was delightful. It was neither too warm nor foe cold, but just right. The aky was unclouded during the whole day, but have the amouncement of this change, inswince as it involves the less of a prominent, useful and highly esteemed well patronized last evening. This af- Oglebay to fill the vacancy. Mr. Paxinasmuch as it involves the loss of a prominent, useful and highly exteemed citizen, one who ably and intelligently served the most important interests of the community and the State in our public councils, and in a private capacity, during the early and trying stages of the war. The institution over which he has so carefully and conscientionaly presided for several years, manifested a rejustance to dispense with his services that is in the nighest degree flattering to his reputation, and the rejuctance manifested by the Directors to part with Mr. Paxton, will, we are sure, be shared by our people generally. The White Pine Compound,
"It was early in the spring of "M that this compound was originated. A member of my family was afflieted with an irritation of the throat attended with a disagreeable cough. I had for some accounts. the medicine that I had been planning d gave if in less poonful doses. The results at exceedingly graffying. Within two ye the irritation of the throat was remove tys the irritation of the inroat was remov-, the cough subsided and a speedy cure as efficient. Soon after this, isent some to lady in Londonderry, N. H., who had been tigering for some sweeks from a bad cough, the cough of th enior of the same preparation in the fact of the same preparation in the fact of a severe cold and was corred immed. He was so highly pleased with the and so comfident in success attenting if placed before the public, that nally persuaded me to give it a na nd it abroad to benefit the unfer ovember, 1855, I first advertised to some of White Pine Compound, was from that time there had been saled in Manchester alone one number out-lars worth, where it took the lead of all the cough remedies in the market, and it still maintains that position. There is good rea-son for this it is very soothing and healing in its nature; is warning to the stomach and pleasant withal to the taste, and is exceed-

in its nature, is warming to the stomach and pleasant withal to the taste, and is exceedingly cheap.

"As a remedy for kidney complaints the White Pine Compound stands unrivaled. It was not originated for that purpose; but a person in using it for a cough was not only cured of the cough, but was also cured of a kidney difficulty of ten years standing. Since that accisental discovery many thousands have used it for the same complaint, and have been completely cured."

The above was written by Dr. Boland, in 1850. Since then, as in Manchester, the White Pine Compound has taken the lead of all Cough remedies, as well as a preparation for the cure of Ridney difficulties, in eyery city own willage and hamlet throughout the New Pine and States.
